

~Sherrie Scherger~

2010 NIFPA Stage Adjudicator

Sherrie Scherger has taught master classes across the globe, Switzerland, Australia, the U.S and Canada. She was principle dancer with Decidedly Jazz Dance Company as well as Las Vegas Company Farrington Production that performed at the Rio Las Vegas and toured Japan. She was a performer with "The Mix" revue show in Macau China as back-up singer and principle dancer. Besides working as a freelance performer and instructor she has choreographed for: Michael Jackson VH1 film "Man in the Mirror", television pilot "The Man" starring LL Cool J, Celsius Films, "Radio Disney", Fashion Television, The Gemini Awards. She has choreographed for Kimberly Wyatt (Pussycat dolls) for VH1 Magic special. She casted and choreographed for Las Vegas Hope Productions touring China, and is the recipient of the International Choreography Award. She has made television appearances on NBC's "America's Got Talent", "The Megan Mullally Show", and "The Tonight Show".

She is Assistant Choreographer to Sean Cheesman, on CTV's SO YOU THINK YOU CAN DANCE.

Performance musical credits include: The Boyfriend, The Music Man, 42nd Street, The Pajama Game.

Choreography for Theatre credits: United theatre Players, Front row Centre Players, Fusion Dance Company, and Mount Royal Theatre Arts Faculty.

Sherrie's work has also been seen in a string of highly successful Las Vegas shows: "Whisper" at Harrah's, "V-the Ultimate Variety Show" at the Venetian, and "Nathan Burton Comedy Magic" at the Flamingo.