

~Gabriel Dubreuil~
2018 NIFPA Fiddle Adjudicator

Gabriel Dubreuil is a classical, jazz and folk violinist from North Vancouver. He holds a Bachelor of Music from Berklee College of Music in Boston, specializing in Jazz violin performance and American roots music.

Gabriel teaches violin and viola and is a director of the Gibson based "Bad To The Bow" fiddle group. Gabriel regularly tours in Canada and the US, with bands including his Celtic-swing group the 'Gabriel Dubreuil Trio', the folk-rock band, 'Early Spirit' and the Boston-based 'Loose Roots Band/Duo'. Gabriel has worked as a session musician in both Vancouver and Boston for the last five years. He has recorded on dozens of pop, jazz and rock albums, singles and music videos with local and international bands, (including the X-Ambassadors, Karthik Maestokes...) and over a hundred student film scores. Gabriel runs fiddle workshops at festivals, schools, and in collaboration with community and youth organizations.
