

~Nancy Pezzo~
2019 NIFPA Ballet Adjudicator

Nancy has been recognized as a professional performer and dance educator for many years. Her strong choreographic skills and strong technical training has enabled her to be successful in the dance world. She is highly respected for her ability to challenge her students to achieve their highest potential.

A graduate of Ryerson Theatre School in Toronto, Nancy has intense training in classical ballet, contemporary, modern, jazz, pedagogy to name a few. Her experience in acting, has allowed her to appear in commercials with CTS Television Studios. Her talent has been recognized by several respectable talent agencies and included a scholarship for the International Model and Talent Network (IMTN) held in New York City where she was scouted from the cast director to be selected to appear on the Young and the Restless. Nancy has a very creative imagination which has given her opportunities to work on choreographic projects for Hudson Bay Company, Lancôme Paris, Toyota, Reitmans, Zellers, TD Bank Financial Group and many more.

Nancy has taught classical and contemporary ballet, lyrical and jazz at several organizations throughout North America, including DX Dance Events Minneapolis, Dance Manitoba Inc., New York Dance Experience and several inhouse studio workshops. Nancy is on faculty as a guest teacher at Joy of Dance Centre and Teacher's College as a classical ballet teacher. She currently resides as a full-time ballet educator at several recognized competitive dance institutions teaching graded and vocational level students.

She is a Registered Teacher, Mentor and Practical Teaching Supervisor with the Royal Academy of Dance. In addition, her certifications include honors with Imperial Society Teachers of Dance (ISTD) for Modern and National, International Dance Teachers Association (IDTA), Professional Adjudicators Alliance (PAA), International Academy of Dance Adjudicators (IADA). An established and reputable Dance Adjudicator for several respectable dance competitions across North America also appeared as a Guest Judge for the World Championships of Performing Arts held in Hollywood, California.

A renowned Dance Educator, Choreographer and Performer; also adds her expertise and advice with Industry Dance Magazine. Nancy also continues her connection and ongoing involvement with both the Toronto International Film Festival and the Sundance Film Festival. Nancy continues to teach for several workshop and convention classes throughout North America and is one of Toronto's most highly regarded ballet educators. As an instructor, Nancy teaches at varied dance schools throughout the Greater Toronto Area and has been the recipient of many choreography awards. Her combined career experiences have enabled her to become a well-rounded professional in the dance field. She is particularly eager to share her experiences, passion and love for dance with today's young dancers.

~Taylor Dolan~
2019 NIFPA Modern Adjudicator

Taylor Dolan is a Vancouver-born dance artist that began at Spiral Dance Co., then into the Ballet-Contemporary Training Company – Lamondance, and later The London Contemporary School of Dance. Her professional career started at twelve when she danced for Disney and Nickelodeon.

While Taylor resided in London, UK, she danced with The Greenwich Contemporary Dance Company. She also worked training dancers for their West End debuts such as The Lion King, Annie and Miss Saigon. Other European credits include performing at the MMVA's in Amsterdam, teacher/adjudicator at Danza In Fiera Florence, Italy.

Among her dancing, Taylor is an improv artist who performed on screen for the San Francisco Film Festival and has performed in music videos for recording artists such as K-OS, Keisha Chante and Sean Desmond. Taylor works throughout the country as a dance educator and adjudicator. She was the 2015 Provincial Adjudicator and works habitually with the BCPAF. Taylor recently concluded work with The Response dance company and is currently teaching for Dance Co. while running the Contemporary section of the Pre-professional Program.

For Taylor, contributing to the dance community is her passion and privilege and she continues to focus on the creative elements of dance.

~Danny Nielsen~
2019 NIFPA Tap Adjudicator

Danny Nielsen is originally from Calgary, AB, where he began tap dancing at the age of 8 under the direction of Gail Scott. He furthered his training joining MADD Rhythms Canada under the direction of Lisa La Touche. At the age of 20, Danny was hired by the highly regarded jazz company Decidedly Jazz Danceworks, which lead to having featured tap choreographies in their productions of Tinge and Tone and 25.

In 2010, Danny became the 'Artist in Residence' at the Vancouver Tap Society, where he directed the boys' program, the girls' program, and youth ensemble Tap Co with the Society for 2 years. During his time in Vancouver, Danny was a part of many productions including A Chronological Life Story of a Few Tap Dancers with Matt Shields and Travis Knights, Stark Pulse with Jessie Sawyers, and the original tap dancer in the creation of Taps and Twang with the Vancouver Chinese Music Ensemble. In 2012, Danny was the recipient of the Santa Aloi Award from the Scotiabank Dance Centre. He later used the grant to create and direct his first full length production Love.Be.Best.Free, which just finished touring BC for a month in February of 2017.
