

~Brittney Anderson~
Tap and HipHop Specialist
2020 NIFPA Stage Adjudicator

Brittney began her dance training in Calgary Alberta. Her training in Ballet, Jazz, Tap, Contemporary, Lyrical, Hip Hop, and Modern has taken her around the world performing with The Calgary Dance Express. In 2003 Brittney represented Canada in both Jazz and Tap at the Worlds in Riesa, Germany. She has also had the pleasure to be part of the hugely successful Tap Company M.A.D.D. Rhythms. Brittney was a part of Sara Dolan's contemporary company O2 Dance. She performed with O2 for 2 years, performing in their sold-out show; I.M. The Seasons Of Love.

She has also danced for musical artists Michale Fitzgerald, Bif Naked, Narai Dawn, Jess Cullen and many more. Her recent performances as a principal dancer include: Lovers of Marley, Lovers of Queen and Sweet Moves. She danced in the extremely successful fundraiser for St. Paul's mental health ward "Brilliant". As well as performed in the sold - out show run of Dances for a Small Stage 35 ~ Valentines Edition, and more recently choreographed and performed a piece for the University of Calgary's Arch Awards as well as a music video for Alberta's own Gord Bamford.
